

Brainwashed Singles Club

ACROSS

- 2 Coincidentally the first Current 93 single was the first Laylah single.
- 6 The incident in which Labradford and Stars of the Lid met.
- 7 606 tribute to NWA.
- 9 Cabaret Voltaire classic from 1982, remixed two decades later.
- 10 Thighpaulsandra's first EP on Eskaton.
- 12 This animal was stomping around on Out Hud's first single of the new millennium.
- 18 An ideal world for Greater Than One.
- 19 Cex wants you to look up to him.
- 20 Fridge's release where Edit, Dub, Version, and Remix were all longer than the LP

DOWN

- 1 Volcano The Bear have all of this that you can breathe.
- 3 Artist who brought you to the "Scene of the Crime."
- 4 Acoustic instrument exploited by Keith Fullerton Whitman for 21 and a half minutes.
- 5 Four parts of this V/Vm single were meant to be played in various combos.
- 8 She wants to know if you take this man.
- 11 Bedhead's Joy Division cover on the 4 Track EP.
- 13 Trans Am and Bowery Electric each had a single on this label.

version.

- 21 Both Meat Beat and Coil remixed this song.
- 22 Jessica Bailiff probably didn't have His Name Is Alive when she recorded this.
- 23 Matmos covered this Coil song on a 2001 single.
- 24 Tortoise's fave enemy of Godzilla.
- 25 This reaches the Spring Rock in an Aranos single.

14 Windy & Carl dreamt of this color for Ochre.

- 15 It's a long way to this place, according to LPD's Pre-Millennial Single.
- 16 Cyclobe were probably not thinking of SUVs with this single.
- 17 Mirror want you to be careful of this person crossing the street.

Note: For a fee, you can use Crossword Weaver to print a nice copy of this puzzle (one that doesn't look like a web page). You can check it out for free by downloading the demo from www.CrosswordWeaver.com