

Brainwashed - Christina Carter

Written by Jon Whitney

Sunday, 16 January 2005 10:05 - Last Updated Tuesday, 25 June 2013 17:58

Christina Carter is most known for her work as 1/2 of the main core of Charalambides. Living Contact is her most recently released solo album but is a collection of older material, reissued on Kranky. Her music is haunting and powerful, patient and unsettling, however, it is to be understood that a performance of two lengthy pieces doesn't translate well to the Eye format - cut in with various interview snippets. We hope you enjoy, regardless.