He has been captivating audiences and critics for around three decades and has worked with a number of the more widely respected modern sound experimentors. z'ev is returning to the live circuit and unearthing new recordings after a healthy pause. He was gracious enough to perform in Dublin as well as sit down for an intimate chat in his current flat in London. While the concert visuals might not be the best, the sound is incredible so turn the speakers up for this one. 20 minutes barely scratches the surface of the concert and interview, and more may be available at some point in the future.
