FUTURE MUSEUMS

ROSEWATER CEREMONY PART II
GUARDIAN OF SOLITUDE

Brainwashed and Holodeck Records are proud to premiere "Closed Eye", by Future Museums, from the album Rose water Ceremony Pt. II: Guardian of Solitude

coming out October 19th. Following up the first installment from earlier in 2018, Neil Lord (Thousand Foot Whale Claw, Single Lash), "Closed Eye" is awash with lush synthesizers and pensive, plaintive guitar work delicately unfurled over haunting ambience. The title specifically refers to how Lord recorded the song: live, in one take, while blindfolded. The full cassette is even more multifaceted, capturing everything from pulsating synth arpeggios and bubbling keyboards to introspective, expansive atmospheres.
