David Jackman has contributed a few sounds to a few Nurse With Wound recordings, namely: Sylvie & Babs Hi-Fi Companion, Spiral Insana and Cooloorta Moon. The production on those pieces was entirely the work of Steven Stapleton

Edition	300 copies

Painted-out record sleeve with A4 insert which features a huge list of the avant-garde/experimental groups which contributed to this record. Organum is mentioned in this insert. The 'group' is really a non-group and the record is a collage of sounds derived from all the artists mentioned on the insert. Pretty hard to identify the Organum contribution. This was reissued on CD in 1999 (see entry 8:06)

Artist	Andrew Chalk
Label :: Cat#	Integrated Circuits Records :: ICR (no catalogue number given)
Country :: Year	UK :: 1988
Format	Cassette tape album :: printed inlay
Edition	25 copies (approx.)
Tracks	A-side :: no track titles B-side :: no track titles

The A-side is a re-working and new production of the original 8-track recordings made for the two-part Organum Kanal 7" (see entry 1:02). Presented as a single long piece, the re-working includes many new sounds added by Andrew Chalk. It is no longer identifiable as an Organum track.

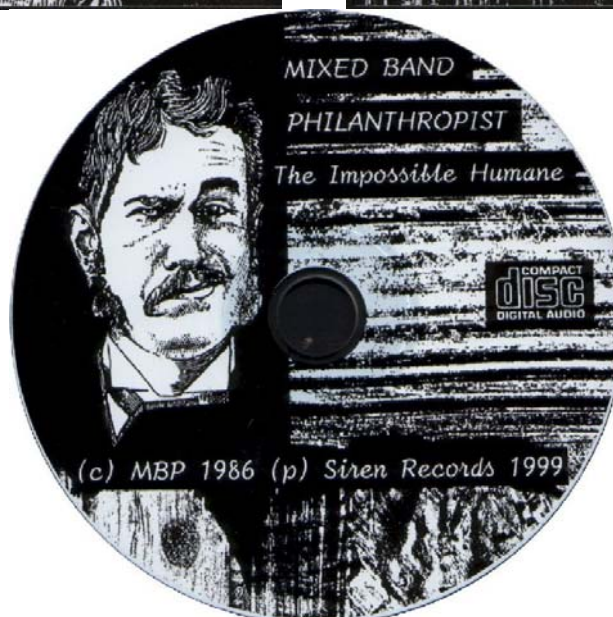

Entry 8:05	Sinister Senile E.P.
Artist	Nurse With Wound
Label :: Cat#	Shock Records :: SX 004
Country :: Year	UK :: 1990
Format	7" vinyl E.P. :: p/s
Edition	500 copies
Tracks	A-side :: Human Human Human (by Nurse With Wound / Organum) B-side :: Psychedelic Underground (in memory of Lüüd Noma) (by Nurse With Wound)

This standard (un-numbered) Shock Records release mentions Organum, however the involvement of David Jackman was minimal. Some of the sounds originated from an abandoned Organum piece. David Jackman subsequently sold the multi-track tape to Steven Stapleton who radically re-worked the piece so that the original sounds are almost unidentifiable. As such, this is not considered as an official Organum release. This is the same as entry 4:03 and one could attach the same comments to that entry as well. Human Human Human appears on 'The Portable Altamont' CD compilation album (Shock Records - UK). Credits given: B-side recorded live at the Barn. David Jackman has never seen this release.
